

Decent Employment for Youth In Cambodia (DEY)

Project ID 221CMB1000

Capitalizing on the comparative advantages, complementary mandates and areas of expertise as well as resources of four United Nations agencies, namely ILO, UNESCO, UNICEF and UNIDO, the "Decent Employment for Youth in Cambodia" programme phase 2 is designed to address these key strategic gaps in building skills and education in Cambodia. The programme intends to support young women and men in Cambodia to increasingly obtain decent and productive employment opportunities by ensuring they are better able to meet labour market demand and are prepared for quality employment. UNESCO will be leading the section on BEEP and FLP. The duration of the programme is 4 years from 2020 - 2023.
